ABOUT RYAN

Following graduation from The Citadel in Charleston, South Carolina, Ryan attended and graduated law school at the University of Dayton School of Law. He began his legal career as an Assistant Solicitor working under then-Solicitor Trey Gowdy in Spartanburg. In 2012, Ryan left the Solicitor's Office and started working in private practice where he developed his skills as an advocate for injured victims and those who have been wronged by the actions of others. Ryan joined Harrison White, P.C. in 2015 where he continues to represent clients in some of life's most difficult situations.

PRACTICE AREAS

- Civil Litigation
- Criminal Defense
- Personal Injury
- Probate and Wills

IN RYAN'S OWN WORDS

"After having practiced law for more than a decade, I can say that my favorite part about my job and the law, in general, is the opportunity to represent clients in their legal needs. Every person's story and experience is unique, and as an attorney, I get the privilege to be a small part of that story and experience. I truly believe that it is a privilege to represent someone as their attorney. I have never lost sight of the fact that I am helping others and they are looking to me for advice and counsel. That is a tremendous responsibility, and one I do not take lightly. The highest praise that I receive is when a new client tells me that a former client referred me to them."
